I KNOW ALL

I AM HERE TO GIVE YOU INSIDE INFORMATION

ASK THE SCREEN LETTER BOX,

GEN. P. O. BOX 250, NEW YORK.

Dear Editor:

How much does Charlie Chaplin get?

Arthur Lukins.

All he can.

Dear Editor:

Is Mollie King married?

Ralph Peters.

She was a June bride of 1919, and Mary Miles Minter acted as a bridesmaid.

Dear Letter Box:

What salary is former Secretary of the Treasury William G. McAdoo receiving as counsel of the "Big Four", Mary Pickford, Fairbanks, Chaplin and Griffith?

John Garth.

Two hundred thousand a year.

Dear Editor:

Where can I locate Douglas Fairbanks?

Priscilla Marlow.

Search us---he's usually on the jump.

DO YOU KNOW that Mary MacLaren and Katherine MacDonald are sisters?

DO YOU KNOW that Mary Pickford worked for $25 a week not so many years ago?

DO YOU KNOW that Earle Williams once sold photographs to make a living?

DO YOU KNOW that Lillian Walker first earned a salary as a telephone operator?

Dear Letter Box:

When will the photoplay "LOST SHEEP" come to our town?

Gladys Gilmore.

Your local minister will tell you, Gladys, that your town already is full of 'em. Why look for more?

Dear Editor:

Maybe you dont believe me, but I can prove that I'd be the greatest screen comedian the public ever saw, even if I do work in a butcher shop.

Ralph Porter.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Many talents are lost through lack of opportunity. Ralph was so insistent that we placed him with a comedy company for a try out.
HIS GREAT DAY----

Did you write this letter?

His first appearance before the camera.

More pep, the action's too slow.

Her big brother.

That's terrible. You'll have to do the whole thing over again.

I'm cured. No more movies for mine.

Dear Editor:

What was the first motion picture made and exhibited?

A girl performing the butterfly dance, on June 6th, 1894.

Screen Letter Box:-

What is the name of Mae Marsh's baby and when was it born.
Elsie Woods.

Mary Marsh Arms was born on February the 13th, of June, 1919, and 13 has always been her mother's lucky number.

LETS ALL GET ACQUAINTED.

The Screen Letter Box will help its correspondents see each other. Cameramen in many places will photograph every week one or more of those who write us for information.

Mrs. James, of Bensonhurst, N. Y., is the lucky one this week. She wants to get her twins, Pete and Repeat, into the movies.

And here's her little note,
Just exactly what she wrote,-

Dear Editor:

Dont you think my dear, cute, charming little twins would be a success in the movies?

Mrs. Mamie James.

Yes, Madam, they'd be a howling success.

Dear Editor:

Are moving picture machines operated by a crank?

George Barry.

No, our operator is a Union man and is perfectly sane and normal.
